Making Hearing Health a Global Priority

Before you Arrive

The Board of the Coalition for Global Hearing Health looks forward to greeting you at the 6th Annual Conference of the Coalition for Global Hearing Health. Almost 200 people form all over the world are registered for the Conference. The agenda, complete with pre-sessions, plenaries, posters and keynote addresses can be viewed at http://cghh.usu.edu/includes/ProgramBook.pdf.

If you have never been to Gallaudet University, you may have questions about where to park, how to navigate around campus, where will the Plenary Sessions be held, how to find your the Registration, exhibits, AND COFFEE. Please find below, some of the answers you are seeking.

Map of Gallaudet Campus:

Parking:
Guests of the Kellogg Conference Hotel at Gallaudet University are assigned a guest parking pass for use in the parking garage or overflow lot. Others (e.g., short-term employees, visitors, guests) may, for a small fee, park in a parking lot. Parking for handicapped individuals is designated in the assigned areas and is in effect 24 hours each day, 7 days per week.
http://www.gallaudet.edu/dps/parking-and-traffic-information.html

Exhibitors, Coffee and Registration:
King Jordan Student Academic Center (SAC) Multi-Purpose Room (next to bookstore)
Registration Table will open 7:30 a.m. Friday, 9-October

Please Note the Agenda for Plenary Sessions Room Assignments:
Most sessions will occur at the Foster Auditorium within Ely Center (directly next to the Student Academic Center). There will be 2 parallel sessions on Friday afternoon with some talks occurring at the Student Academic Center Auditorium concurrently with other talks occurring at the Foster Auditorium.

Board of Directors

Co-Chairs:
James E. Saunders, MD
Associate Professor of Otolaryngology
Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center

Jackie L. Clark, PhD/F-AAA; ABA
Clinical Associate Professor
School of Behavioral & Brain Science
University of Texas at Dallas

Treasurer:
Karl R. White, PhD
Professor of Psychology
Director, National Center for Hearing Assessment and Management
Utah State University

Information Technology Director:
David Wayne Molter, MD
Professor of Otolaryngology
St. Louis Barnes Children's Hospital

Board Members
Paige Stringer
Executive Director
Global Foundation for Children with Hearing Loss

Lisa Kovacs
Program Director
Hands and Voices,

Coalition for Global Hearing Health / 500 Hanover Center Rd Etna, NH 03750
coalitionforglobalhearinghealth.org
Tours of Gallaudet (provided by Gallaudet Guided Tours)
Tours are held on weekdays, twice per day. They begin at the Visitors Center, located in the lobby of the Edward Miner Gallaudet Memorial Building (EMG), and last approximately one hour. Tours are conducted in American Sign Language (ASL), and voice interpreters are provided for visitors who do not sign. Interpreted tours must be requested at least two weeks in advance at:
http://www.gallaudet.edu/visitors-center.html

There is also a virtual tour available at (http://www.gallaudet.edu/visitors-center/virtual-tour.html)
or a your own walking with the Gallaudet Map at (http://www.gallaudet.edu/visitors-center/maps-and-directions.html)

Meals:
There are a number of cafes and eateries on the Gallaudet Campus as well as within walking distance that can be found at:
http://gallaudet.cafebonappetit.com/

Gallaudet Shuttle Service:
Gallaudet University Shuttle Service stops in front of the Kellogg Conference Hotel and delivers passengers to Union Station in the Parking Garage. For schedules, and more information go to http://www.gallaudet.edu/transportation/shuttle-bus-services.html

PRE-CONFERENCE ACTIVITIES
River School and Georgetown University Hospital Tour: Meet at entrance of the Kellogg Conference Hotel no later than 8:15 a.m.

ALL of the preconference workshops will be held at the King Jordan Student Activity Center (SAC). Please refer to the Program Book, which can be accessed online at http://cghh.usu.edu/includes/ProgramBook.pdf
for Room Assignments.

GLOBAL CONNECTION GALA
All Conference attendees are invited to attend the Gala event on Friday evening from 6-9 PM at the Kellogg Conference Center Hotel. There is no cost for registered attendees. The evening will include a reception at which you can view Conference posters, dinner, keynote speakers, and entertainment. Business Dress